SOVIET ARMENIAN ART EXHIBIT AT UNIVERSITY OF LOWELL

LOWELL, MASS. - The University of Lowell announces the week-long showing of a major art exhibit by contemporary Soviet Armenian artists beginning Friday, October 20.

The exhibit, currently on a nationwide tour, is sponsored by the Armenian Ministry of Cultural Exchange, and appears on campus through the assistance of the Armenian Church of Chelmsford. Garik Basmajian, an internationally recognized authority on the contemporary art of Soviet Armenia, is accompanying the exhibit, and will be available to answer questions and comment on the exhibit.

The University will host the exhibit through October 27, and the public is invited to view the collection during the hours the O'Leary Library is open. The library hours for the week are Monday through Thursday, 8:00 AM - 10:30 PM; Friday, 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM; Saturday, 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM; and Sunday, 2:00 PM - 10:00 PM.
